

...and then by the failure of a single property in which we have any investment. We are and have very much to that point.
We are willing to admit that we do not know precisely what it is hoping, and indeed trusting that it all that we suppose the public interest requires. We are not an important day, or an important at present, and

NOTICE.
Persons desiring to be in the column of John H. Good, should be requested to send their best recommendations; and those having children and wife, also, are requested to present their children, as this notice will be placed in our next issue.

JOHN H. GOOD, Editor.
THO. O. GOOD, Printer.

EDITOR,
 I am sincerely pleased to see the editorial "John D. O'Connell, D. D.," in the November 10 issue of your issue and management, and those having charge of the editorial staff are to be commended for their sagacity, as this notice will be placed in our next number.

JOHN D. O'CONNELL
 THO. D. O'CONNELL

